

'CURLY' BROOKS' VICTORY BRINGS FEDERAL PROBE

G.O.P. Chairman at Once Urges Vigilance to Prevent Theft

Chicago, Nov. 7.—(AP)—U. S. District Attorney J. Albert Woll announced today he was making an investigation of the eleventh hour victory of C. Wayland Brooks, Chicago Republican, over James M. Slattery in the senatorial race.

Woll said Slattery, a Democrat who has been serving as senator since April, 1939, under a temporary appointment, had requested the investigation on the grounds that Brooks' last minute spurt into the lead indicated the possibility of irregularities in certain precincts.

The district attorney reported that Slattery had told him his suspicions were aroused because the precincts came in "quite late" and were contrary to the trend which had kept him ahead for 19 hours after the polls closed.

"We are making our inquiry to determine if there is any basis for Senator Slattery's complaint," Woll explained.

The latest Associated Press tabulation of the senatorial vote, covering all of the state's 8,378 precincts, gave Brooks 2,037,871 and Slattery 2,020,928, a Republican plurality of 16,943.

In lead Wednesday noon Brooks went ahead in this tabulation about noon yesterday with a few thousand votes, then gradually built up his plurality as still later returns were counted.

Martin Ward and William Crilly, Assistant U. S. District Attorneys in charge of election fraud investigations here, have been assigned to the Slattery-Brooks inquiry.

Ward said about 35 precincts in the city of Chicago and the county of Cook were under scrutiny.

G. O. P. Issues Warning Twenty-five or 30 persons will be questioned later today, Ward said, and if developments warranted it, precinct officials would be called in later. Unofficial steps have been taken to keep the ballots segregated.

While Slattery pressed the federal investigation and sent a communication to County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki, head of Cook county's election machinery, asking that some ballots from the suburbs be impounded, Republican officials moved to protect their interests, too.

Ben Berve, chairman of the state central committee, and John Dempsey, head of the Cook county central committee, warned workers and officials to watch closely the official canvass of the vote in all 102 counties.

The importance of such surveillance was emphasized by Berve in pointing out that a change of as few as two votes in each precinct would wipe out Brooks' victory. "I am not charging an attempt will be made to steal the election," he said. "I am, however, desirous of doing the obviously sensible thing under the circumstances."

Barrett Best "Gaffer" George F. Barrett of Chicago, the Republican attorney general-elect, emerged from Tuesday's election as the best vote-puller.

Returns from all but one down-state precinct and 23 in Cook county gave him 2,240,652 votes, a plurality of 107,625 over his Democratic opponent, State Senator Harold G. Ward of Chicago, who polled 2,132,746 votes.

Thus he topped Dwight Green, Republican governor-elect, who received 2,179,872 votes in unofficial returns from all but four down-state precincts and 30 in Cook county.

Barrett, a 37-year-old lawyer, conducted an energetic campaign, basing most of it on a fight against vote frauds here.

Green, 43-year-old, also is a lawyer in Chicago. In winning his first elective office he rolled up a vote that surpassed President Roosevelt's and gave Republicans their first gubernatorial victory since 1928.

Salient Features The two salient features of the balloting were Roosevelt's continued popularity, and the striking gains made by Republicans in contests for state offices.

Republicans scored victories in the races for governor, auditor, treasurer, attorney general, lieutenant governor, United States senator and in addition they captured control of the congressional delegation and the General Assembly.

Against these gains the Democrats retained control of the secretary of state office, picked up a seat in the General Assembly and carried the state for Roosevelt.

Republicans gained about eight seats in the state Senate to overcome the Democratic majority. The indicated Senate lineup was: Republicans 28, Democrats 23. Although losing one seat in the House, the Republicans retained control of that branch, thus giving them domination over the

Illinois Senator-Elect Spent Part of Boyhood Here

Chicago, Nov. 7.—(AP)—C. Wayland Brooks, who distinguished himself as a soldier in France, today reiterated his pledge, that as United States senator he would fight to keep from imperiling other American boys in foreign wars.

"From my experiences in the World War I have developed the conviction that American soldiers should not be sent to foreign lands to die," said the new senator who won a lieutenantcy at Belleau Woods and three decorations after having been severely wounded in the Soissons attack.

Like his victorious running mate, Governor-Elect Dwight H. Green, Brooks is 43 years old and a Chicago attorney. Brooks defeated U. S. Senator James M. Slattery, Democrat, and will fill out the unexpired term of the late Democratic senator, James Hamilton Lewis.

Tuesday's election was the first in which Brooks came out on top. He ran for office in 1932, 1934 and 1936, and explained with a grin: "I've been running second since I won the 440 yard dash in the county track meet. I had begun to be a little tired of that second place. But no one can say I gave up trying."

In 1932 Brooks ran for state treasurer, in 1934 he tried for congressman-at-large, and in 1936 for governor.

In the 1936 campaign he led the G. O. P. ticket by 112,000 but his lead dwindled and he fell before the heavy Democratic ballot surge in Cook county.

A native of West Bureau, Ill., Brooks comes from pioneer Illinois stock, his father having been born near DeKalb and his mother on a farm near Kewanee.

His father's ministry in the Congregational church took the family to Dixon, Peoria and Kewanee in the first 11 years of the senator's life.

Upon graduation from high school in Wheaton, Brooks enrolled at the University of Illinois in 1916, intending to work his way through college. But when the United States entered the World War, Brooks abandoned his plan and at the age of 20 enlisted in the marine corps.

The war over, Brooks returned to the University of Illinois. He was graduated from Northwestern University and was admitted to the bar in 1926.

In 1928 Brooks joined the staff of the state's attorney of Cook county. After his term as assistant prosecutor, he returned to private law practice, entering politics actively in the 1932 campaign.

Brooks has a 16-year-old son, Russell. Like his father, Russell has the heavy dark wavy hair that known as "Curly."

Mrs. Roosevelt Says Diplomatic Reception Will Be Omitted Again

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said today the traditional diplomatic reception would not be held at the White House this year "because of war conditions in Europe and the feeling that it might be embarrassing for members of the diplomatic corps."

No diplomatic dinner was held last year, and Mrs. Roosevelt said this function again would be omitted this year.

At her first press conference since President Roosevelt's election, the first lady also said that because "Warm Springs, Ga., is too far away," the president and she would not go there for Thanksgiving as has been their custom. Instead, she said, they would be here at the White House or at Hyde Park, N. Y.

Mrs. Roosevelt also said that tomorrow the White House, which has just been repainted, would be reopened to tourists.

Americans Called Upon Today to Form United Front to Show Rest of World

New York, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Americans were called upon today to cast aside campaign bitterness and present a united front for the world to regard.

Impetus of the movement came from an "America United Rally" at Carnegie Hall last night at which leaders of various phases of American life urged listeners to

CAPITAL CROWDS GIVE ROOSEVELTS ROYAL WELCOME

President Tells Them He Likes Washington As Permanent Home

BULLETIN

Detroit, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Revised unofficial presidential vote totals, now virtually complete, tipped Michigan back into the Republican column this afternoon. With three of the state's 3632 precincts missing, the vote was: Willkie 1,028,087; Roosevelt 1,025,774.

Belated returns from straggling precincts in out-state districts where the Republican nominee showed his greatest early strength upset the advantage, never too substantial, that predominantly Democratic Wayne county (Detroit) gave the president midway of the count.

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, first man in history to be selected for 12 years in the White House, told a welcoming throng of thousands today that he and the First Lady liked farm life, but that of all the cities in the country they would rather live in Washington, D. C.

He made the statement with a laugh in a talk to a crowd which thronged the plaza outside Union station upon his arrival from Hyde Park, N. Y.

The chief executive, fresh from his third term election triumph, thanked "my old friends of Washington" for their reception.

Mrs. Roosevelt, Henry A. Wallace, vice-president-elect, and Mrs. Wallace rode with the President to the White House.

At the White House, the White House police forced lined up at attention. The staff of the executive mansion added its welcome.

After Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt went indoors, the gates of the White House grounds were opened for the first time in months and the people flowed through them.

"We want Roosevelt," they chanted and roared.

Welcome Rivals Royalty's Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt came out on the front porch and waved in response. Cries for a speech were unavailing.

Flags whipped in the crisp autumnal air. Bunting decked the great gray building. School children lined the curbs. Bands were marshalled. Police, expecting the biggest day since the visit of Britain's king and queen, had prepared to handle a crowd of 300,000.

The decisiveness of the president's triumph was reflected in the hourly more complete tabulation of the nation's popular vote.

The president had 29 states to his credit with a total of 468 electoral votes, while Willkie mustered 9 states and 63 electoral votes. The big possibility of a change in this lineup appeared to rest with Michigan, where late Republican gains cut the Democratic margin to a slender 3,700 with more than 60 districts yet to report.

G. O. P. Encouraged The Roosevelt victory, however, was not without encouraging aspects for his Republican opposition. The same figures which clarified his reelection, also proclaimed substantial Republican gains over 1936 when Roosevelt won 52 electoral votes to the 8 which two lone states yielded to his rival, Alf M. Landon.

In 1932 the popular vote went: Roosevelt 27,476,673; Landon 16,679,583; but in 1940 Willkie not only slashed fifty per cent off the numerical size of the Roosevelt plurality but piled up a record.

Correspondence School Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—After all the vote-counting, the Electoral College turned out today to be a correspondence school.

The only sessions will be held Dec. 16 in the various state capitals, and the 531 electors will hand their votes to Congress by registered mail. Congress will tabulate the letters on Jan. 6, and on Jan. 20 Mr. Roosevelt actually will be sworn in for his third term.

PEACE AND QUIET AGAIN

Now that the tumult has subsided and the smoke has rolled away we can better appreciate that old Chinese proverb that says, "Tranquility, thy name is Heaven." This nation of ours can work itself up into a fine frenzy over matters political, but has the saving grace of being able to readjust itself overnight to whatever the results may be and accept those results, not only with equanimity but with renewed hopes for better times ahead.

We do not believe that any of us are hypocritical in our criticism of the leaders of our political opponents, but as good Americans we not only bow to majority rule but applaud it. We not only hope that our alarm at the prospect of continuance in office of our opponents was mistaken and we start in new again with a united American front against outside aggression, subversive elements at home and all forces of evil which may threaten the American way of life.

President Roosevelt, on the eve of election, gave the nation assurance that none of our boys would be sent to any foreign wars. He should be given every possible support in his effort to keep that pledge.

The Democratic party has retained its administration in Washington but Franklin Roosevelt is not just the leader of the Democrats, or the New Deal or the Third Termers now. He is again the leader of all of the United States and every American.

Republicans in Illinois have something big to rejoice in. The new governor of this state, who will be Dwight H. Green, will take over after the first of the year and the grip of the Kelly-Nash machine, which has bossed Cook county and Springfield for so long, will be shaken off. It is a great compliment to Dwight Green and to the intelligence and courage of the voters of Illinois that they stood up for better government in this state and elected the Republican state ticket in the face of the Democratic trend on the national ticket.

America is big and strong and free and unafraid and has faith in its future.

Both Branches of State's Assembly in G.O.P. Control

Chicago, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Republicans will organize both houses of the Illinois General Assembly when it convenes for the regular biennial session in January.

Retaining control of the House by a slender margin of three votes, the Republicans turned the heat on in the Senate and snatched eight seats away from the Democrats to control that body 28 to 23.

In the last General Assembly, the Democrats controlled the Senate by 31 to 20 seats. The Republicans, however, organized the House two years ago by a margin of 79 to 74. This year they lost a seat and now control 78 to 75.

In winning the Senate, Republicans overthrew five incumbent state Senators and picked up three additional seats. Democratic casualties were: John J. Meyers, Chicago; L. C. Sieberns, Griggley; Melvin Thomas, Charleston; Harry C. Stuttle, Litchfield; and D. T. Woodward, Grayville.

Mrs. Barnes Beaten Mrs. Lizzie Barnes, Carmi widow, apparently lost her seat in the House from the 48th district, but it may take an official canvass of the votes to determine the winner. It was reported that in one county election judges counted a single vote on the ballots where a voter had "plumped" for a single legislative candidate and which should be counted as three.

Mrs. Barnes was the only woman unseated, since Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill of Downers Grove, Mrs. Bernice T. Van Der Vries, Winnetka, and Mrs. Maude N. Peppers of Aurora, were reelected without trouble.

I. H. Streeter, Alton Republican who had been considered a strong candidate for speaker of the House in the event of a Republican victory was defeated.

Harry M. McCaskrin, veteran Republican from Rock Island, also failed to win.

James J. Barbour of Evanston, for several terms a Republican state senator, won his way back to the legislative wars in the House from the sixth district.

The speakership may develop into a fight between Rep. R. J. Branson of Centralia, present floor leader of the House, and veteran Elmer J. Schnackenberg of Chicago.

For Reference

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Memo for future reference in 1944: Four states that always picked the presidential winner since the turn of the century ran true to form Tuesday, Ohio, Wyoming, Idaho and Missouri all wound up in the Roosevelt column.

Two formerly infallible states, however, backed the wrong man this time. The Kansas record, dating back to 1896, was broken when the state went for Willkie. North Dakota, on every ballot wagon since 1892, missed the 1940 ride by going Republican.

Divorce Suit Filed—A complaint has been filed in the office of Circuit Clerk E. S. Rosecrans by Frank E. Wingert seeking to dissolve his marriage with Emma Wingert, desertion being charged. The complaint states that the couple were married at Surrey, N. D., Oct. 24, 1935.

Three More Registrants—The selective service board for district 2 of Lee county today reported three additional registrants at its headquarters in Ambler: 1727, Philip Clark Hammond; 1728, Anthony Henry Montavon; Sublette, 1729, Ray Andrew Miller, Franklin Grove.

Start Canvassing Vote—Attorneys C. M. Glosser of Ashton and Elwin Wadsworth of Dixon compose the canvassing board which today started reviewing the returns from the 39 Lee county voting precincts at the office of County Clerk Sterling Schrock. The large vote polled at Tuesday's general election indicated at noon that the canvass of the returns would not be completed before late afternoon.

Condition Is Critical—Ben B. Billinger, 504 North Galena avenue, is in a critical condition at Rockford hospital in Rockford, having developed pleuropneumonia after suffering for several days from complications, following an appendectomy performed about two weeks ago. Dr. Wilbur Post of Chicago, staff head of Presbyterian hospital in Chicago and dean of the Rush Medical school, has been called to attend him.

Inquiry Continues—The attempted robbery of the Nove hardware store at Amboy at an early hour Wednesday morning, which was frustrated when Night Officer Louis Scott grappled with a stranger he found attempting to force a window of the store, continued under investigation.

Tailor Goes to Work—Fort Bragg, N. C., Nov. 7.—(AP)—After five weeks in the army here, Private Raymond E. Hay, 20, of Rock Island, Ill., doesn't have a uniform.

Reason—Hay stands six feet four and weighs 335 pounds. There were no uniforms big enough to fit him and a hard-pressed tailor is just getting around to his job.

Utilities Worker Killed This Noon

(Telegraph Special Service) Mt. Morris, Nov. 7.—Floyd McDonald, 22, of Lyndon in Whiteside county, was instantly killed this morning about 9:30, when he fell a distance of about 35 feet, his head striking on the cement paving on Seminary avenue, north of the postoffice. McDonald was a member of the Illinois Northern Utilities company tree-trimming crew and was working under Frank Prout, crew foreman when the accident occurred.

He was engaged with other workmen in removing limbs of trees which interfered with the company's transmission lines, and in some manner while changing his position, lost his hold and fell. The body was removed to the Finch mortuary where Dr. J. C. Akin of Forreston, Ogle county coroner, conducted an inquest, the jury finding that the young man met an accidental death. The body was to be removed to his home this afternoon.

Italy's "Big Push" in Drive Against Greece is Reported Under Way

The War Today!

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The world at large appears to be accepting the American election as endorsement of Washington's policy of stone walling against armed aggression, and of rendering all aid to Britain short of war—an appraisal which in my mind is bound to impose a large degree of caution upon both aggressor nations and those which might feel impelled to join them.

If that seems boastful I would point out that the triple alliance itself—Germany, Italy and Japan—in recent weeks has been displaying deep concern over our continued support of the enemy they are trying to destroy. This worry has deepened with the Nazi failure to invade and crush England.

The government controlled press of the three musketeers has alternately chattered threats at us and tried by cajolery and bribes of territory to swing us in line with the totalitarian "new order". Meantime non-belligerent nations like Russia and Turkey have continued their resistance to axis pressure to join the array against England.

In this connection it is a coincidence of great importance that Russia last night, right on the heels of the Russian announcement that the soviet's policy is one of continued neutrality and armed vigilance.

Now it would be misleading you if I gave the impression that I have any information entitling me to say that the Russian announcement was connected with the American election. I can only express the belief that there was a connection, since Russia has been watching our attitude toward Britain carefully.

The Turks, upon whom Britain must depend so heavily if the axis powers try to force the Dardanelles and break into the Near East, showed their pleasure.

The British press is jubilant, on the basis that "America will quicken her stride again and without any of the delays that might have come from the sending of a new man to the White House, London's anxiety to keep up an uninterrupted flow of supplies from the United States is natural, since had she not been given our aid Herr Hitler without much doubt would be dining off the British Majesty's gold service now."

The impression prevails in some quarters that England wants us to come into the war. I believe there was a time early in the conflict when a good many Britons did hope for, and work for, that. However, that sentiment would appear to have about disappeared.

I believe British Premier Churchill desires more of our obsolescent destroyers like the fifty he secured in the deal for naval bases. The increasingly serious destruction of British shipping by Nazi submarines would appear to be a sufficient explanation for his anxiety to increase his fleet of U-boat destroyers.

It is my understanding that when we made the destroyer deal with Churchill, we had 165 of 115. Some of these have been put into our own service again, but it's my guess that if our government wanted to dispose of more there would be maybe fifty or seventy-five available.

Tunnel Collapses; Six Negro Workers Buried

Pittsburgh, Nov. 7.—(AP)—A section of an old tunnel being repaired in nearby Stone township collapsed today, burying a squad of six Negro workers, five of whom were believed killed.

One of the men, William Peay, 30, was dug out of the debris alive. He said a "sudden loud, cracking noise" had given an instant's warning of the danger.

REX BELL DEFEATED Las Vegas, Nev., Nov. 7.—(AP)—Rex Bell, who quit a career as a movie cowboy to become a real one, on a rambling ranch near here, lost out in his first attempt to rope a political job. A Republican, Bell trailed the Democratic nominee for Clark county commissioner by a 4-3 margin.

Congress Will Soon Be Asked to Boost Constitutional Limit of Nation's Debt

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Secretary Morgenthau said today that he would ask congress to increase the national debt limit to 60 or 65 billion dollars to care for possible deficits up to June 30, 1942.

Announcing this at a press conference, Morgenthau told reporters: "We've just begun to rearm."

The treasury chief said also that congress might be asked at the present session to make available for general financing the $4,000,000,000 which it authorized for special defense borrowing. That sum would be included in the 15 to 20 billion which Morgenthau said might be needed during the next fiscal year. The present debt limit, with this $4,000,000,000 included, is $49,000,000,000.

Asked whether it was conceivable that government expenditures could be put on a "pay as you go" basis shortly, Morgenthau replied "I don't think it's possible."

The secretary said that with the old $45,000,000,000 debt limit it "practically reached" the treasury found itself "in a rather difficult position."

He added that it would be "very helpful" if congress lifted immediately the restrictions which it put on the $4,000,000,000 additional debt authorization before January 1.

As for a general increase in the debt limit, Morgenthau said that he and Daniel W. Bell treasury undersecretary, would go before congress as soon as possible after the new session begins.

Siege of Koritza by Greeks Seems to be Critical

(By The Associated Press)

Italy's long expected "big push" in the 11-day-old war with Greece was reported under way today as the Italian high command said fascist divisions had advanced beyond the Kalamas river on the northwest battlefield.

The Italian invaders had reached the river eight days ago in their thrust from Albania.

Dispatches from the northeast front said the siege of Koritza, key Italian supply base 10 miles inside Albania, where 30,000 fascist troops have been reported "trapped", appeared to be reaching a critical phase.

Unconfirmed frontier advices reaching Salonika yesterday said Greek mountain fighters, snatching down from heights around the city, had entered Koritza and captured thousands of Italian prisoners.

Military experts discounted the reports, however, pointing out that the Greeks would be in a more favorable position to reach the mountains beyond reach of Italian mechanized forces.

Both sides were reported rushing reinforcements to the Koritza sector.

Bombers Active Greek and British warplanes bombed Koritza and Agrocastro, another Albanian town while Italian bombers smashed at the Greek town of Philora with reported heavy casualties ensuing.

Greece's high command acknowledged that Greek forces "ret

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or watery passages with stinging and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

IS WAR NEXT?

The tumult and the shouting of the campaign have now died. What men say now is not for party. It is for country.

Many men have said that as soon as the election was over we will be in the war within a few months. Both of the leading candidates promised not to send our armed force abroad. But that promise was broken at the moment it was made. President Roosevelt delivered 50 destroyers to one of the belligerents. Mr. Willkie approved this act although he questioned its method, and its secrecy. Those destroyers were part of our armed might. If 50 warships can be transferred to help fight a war the entire fleet, or any part of it, can be also. And may be.

It is a quibble to say that we are not going to participate in the war. We are participating and without the consent of Congress. Those destroyers will make war. Therefore Mr. Roosevelt has made war. He sent them overseas to fight. That was his only purpose.

Neither Mr. Roosevelt nor Mr. Willkie were entirely honest with us, nor with himself. They both split hairs to win votes. All either actually promised to do was not to send men. But in war a battleship is more important than a man. When we send the floating guns belonging to this government to fight in a foreign war, that act gives the nation or nations against whom the guns will fire, the right to retaliate. They will retaliate. They will sink our former fighting ships if they can. And they may also sink other ships and those who man them. Moreover, if after giving a beligerent part of our navy or air force we find that is not enough, will we get half way into a war and then pull out, thus acquiring none of the benefits but all of the enmities of a half fighter and full coward? Neither candidate answered that question. Neither honestly faced the ultimate issue.

The fact is that the millions of our people who are determined to not fight overseas had no real champion in the campaign just closed. Both of the leading candidates were and are interventionists in fact. But they hid the fact behind a mask of words. What recourse is left to these millions of Americans? Just one, congress. Our newly elected congressman is now home in your district. Before he leaves for Washington, tell him to his face, at his office, at his home, by telephone, or by letter that he promised not to go farther into this war than we already are and that you expect him to keep that pledge.

These are solemn days. And 1944 is a long way off. Will we have a free government four years hence? That will depend on whether we are still capable of being all-American or half-English or half-Chinese.

It has been said that you can sell the American people anything at all if you only wrap it in the flag. We are saps for slogans. In half a century we have not followed a slogan without regret. Forty years ago "manifest

Did you buy YOUR car on "Millinery"?

YOU hear it said often nowadays that it's millinery that sells automobiles.

All right—let's put it up to one who knows. Did you buy your car on nick-nacks, trick devices, novelties?

We don't think so.

We believe that while considering style, and room, and comfort — you really picked your car on what it would do on the road!

Now, we take our hats off to no car for being smarter-looking than Buick. We'll match our product against any for room, for appointments, for fine finish, for comfort.

But beyond all that, we challenge the whole field to equal

Buick on its downright all-round performance ability.

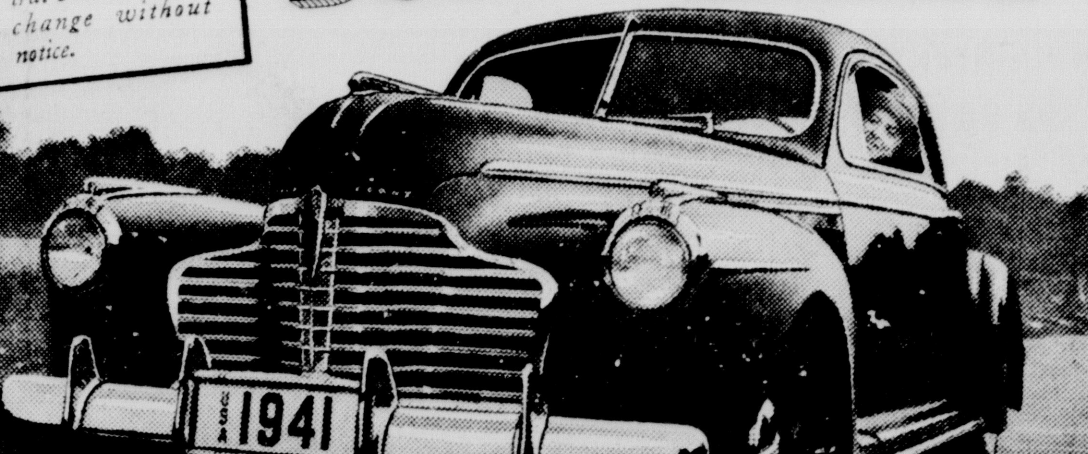

On its power — on its pull — on its pick-up — on its easy handling (including freedom from shifting) — yes, and on its thrift.

Nowhere will you find a car that does so much so well and so frugally.

You'll find novelties in the new Buicks of course, but they're not the chief attraction. Instead you'll see the two big basic engineering developments of the year — FIREBALL design and Compound Carburetion.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAID:

"Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and odious, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests." From the Farnwell Address.

Home Guard—Proceed With Caution

In the heat of the election, few people noticed that Congress on Oct. 21 passed an act authorizing the setting up of "home guard" units in the states.

The idea, of course, is to provide some sort of a force which could be used as a substitute for the national guard as the guard's units go into the federal service and, in many cases, leave the state. It has been Congress' thought, evidently, that it would be unwise to leave states without some force which could be called out in case of fire, flood, or natural disaster, of riot or internal disturbance, or of concerted sabotage of manufacturing or producing facilities.

The basic idea is probably all right. But any activities of this kind ought to be carried out only in a completely responsible manner. The country wants no amateur vigilantes trooping up and down the land, acting on whatever sort of wild hunch seems to them a good idea at the time. We are not at war, and there is so much the less excuse for any of the acts of terrorism that were perpetrated in 1917-18 in the name of "home guarding."

Private organizations, no matter how patriotic, should not be allowed to organize or support any such forces. They should be public forces, completely organized, trained, and controlled by the army, subject as the army is, to proper civilian authority.

In fact, it would not be a bad idea to raise any such force by the draft just as the regular army is raised. That would insure that home defense, as well as national defense, be entrusted to a cross section of the nation's people, and not overweighed by any single economic or political group. It would insure that the burden of such service would be evenly distributed.

Only completely responsible and properly trained officers should be placed in charge, and all activities should be subject to control and review by public civilian authority. Only thus will any home guard activity be properly geared to accomplish what it is meant to accomplish, and nothing else.

And Now—to Aid the Farmer!

Many people do not realize it, but the present depression did not strike the country in the fall of 1929, as supposed. It struck very soon after the World War, when farm prices were deflated. The farmer was taken out of the American market for things produced in the cities.

But, although food prices declined considerably, the cost of things the farmer had to buy, and of services he needed, did not drop proportionately.

The McNary-Haugen bill was designed to assist the farmer, and there was some squawking when the bill was vetoed and nothing was offered to take its place. City industries were protected from foreign competition. Industrial labor was protected from an influx of cheap foreign labor. The farmer had to sell his goods at world prices, while paying American prices for what he bought.

Even though farmers have curtailed their acreage to a large extent so as to create scarcity their acreage to a large extent so as to create scarcity and thus hike prices, the crops themselves have not dropped proportionately in number of bushels. As surpluses and holding them from the market—but a makeshift, the government has been cornered that can't be considered a solution to the problem. A good doctor cures the patient before he runs out of painkillers.

In order to make it possible for some other countries to buy our industrial products, the government has considered buying foreign agricultural surpluses. It actually has lowered the duty on imported agricultural products that compete with our own. This may act as a temporary aid to industry, but it can't be of permanent benefit.

Some way must be found to put the American farmer back in the market as a purchaser of the things we manufacture in our cities.

The Virtue of Patience

You may have heard the expression "The law's delay," included among life's trials by Hamlet in the famous Shakespeare soliloquy. But for free-style champion all-American delay, we know of nothing to touch this:

The U. S. Court of Claims, on May 8, 1940, reported to Congress certain claims for indemnity as a result of "spoliations by the French prior to July 31—1801." Somewhere in the vast cave of the winds of the law, these claims have been flying around for 139 years, like the poor damned souls Dante described in his Inferno.

Perhaps this is unjust. Perhaps some heir to an heir has only recently decided that his ancestor was "spoliated." In either case, it has taken a phenomenal time to get this out-stretched palm properly before the speaker's desk in Congress.

That Bomb Sight

Reports have been circulated and denied by some, that the famous bomb sight developed for American air forces has been turned over to Britain.

If, by any chance, a British airplane is brought down in Germany while equipped with this apparatus, it will be possible for the Germans to duplicate it. As of today the United States loses nothing by turning the sight over to Britain, because the English are not apt to use it against us. On the day a Nazi scientist gets a look at the bomb sight, it will be no longer a secret, but a potential threat against American security.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON
(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, Nov. 7.—Next big struggle of the war will be for Africa—the whole of it—and that is where the British will want us to come in.

Now that the campaign has been off, discussions are developing among military men on the piecemeal official information picked up about the recent Hitler-Mussolini conferences. Clearly it indicates conquest of the African continent is the basic grand strategy of the dictators' 1940-41 campaign.

It has already started. German fifth columnists have been sifting into all British and French colonies there at a rate more rapid than was apparent in Norway and Holland before they were crushed. A report from Kenya colony (British) on the southeast African coast pictures the activities of various political parties there now as "worse than in Berlin."

This ultimate goal is confirmed by open axis dickerings with Spain and the effort of Mussolini to clear the Grecian flank for a German invasion of Turkey. First step was the seizure of Dakar.

The idea is sound from the German standpoint. The war has become a struggle for economic existence. With all the raw materials of Africa, the axis will control the economic resources of two continents to fend off exhaustion.

The British well know what is afoot. In fact our information probably comes through them. But they rather like the new battleground. It offers a possible future opening for a military defeat of Germany where none exists now. Invasion of Europe would be just as difficult for the British now as invasion of England has proved for the Germans. If the Germans, however, string out their military forces through two continents, committing themselves constantly to an ever-widening front, they will thin their army out. Britain, too, will have full freedom of movement in the seas off the African coast. In the end the British might roll right back up to Berlin by any path the Germans could cut to Africa, across the Dardanelles and Gibraltar.

For such a campaign, the British would need every ounce of military might they can muster. They must keep large forces at home to meet the threat of invasion which will be kept constantly before them. Up to now they have not been able to use more American help than they have been getting. But they will be able to use it then. Pressure for American participation should be expected to grow accordingly.

Don't expect anything from the French merely because 90 per cent of the French people are assumed to favor Britain.

The secret of all French governmental actions heretofore and hereafter is that Hitler has 1,800,000 French prisoners of war in German camps. If any German suffers slightly ruffled hair in France, Herr Hitler has let the French know it will be taken out on the prisoners. The French dare not do anything hereafter except by German bidding.

Hitler has been keeping a distance away from the Vichy government to give it a deceptive appearance of minor independence. Don't let that fool you. Hitler has perfected a system of running every detail of Vichy activity from a distance and without direct communication. He works through the armistice commission which is a continuing body functioning daily.

What he wants Vichy to do is communicated by his German commissioners across the table in Paris to the French commissioners who relay it to Pétain.

The British lost all chance of even hidden help from France when Pétain failed to get the 1,800,000 French hostages released from Hitler's prisons.

JOHN SCHUMM

John Schumm was born in Wurttemberg, Germany on April 7, 1859 and passed away in his home at 510 Squires avenue, Dixon, Ill., on Monday, Nov. 4, 1940, at the age of 81 years, 6 months and 28 days.

Mr. Schumm came to America in 1883, at the age of 24, and made his home with an uncle, Mr. Schwab of Rock Falls, Ill. Soon thereafter he was joined in marriage to Miss Rosina Whorle. The body was removed to the Melvin funeral home where an inquest was conducted at 10:30, the jury determining that death resulted from a heart attack which he had suffered while he slept. Mrs. Isham told the jury that she heard him in his room about 1:30 o'clock and that he had been treated previously for heart trouble.

The deceased was born in Hardin county, this state, June 10, 1903 and had resided in Dixon for the past 14 years. ## GOAL TO GO

BY W. H. PEARS

COPYRIGHT 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY, Buck talks the team out of their strike, sends Bill to practice. Bill tries one of his father's plays, and the scrub team clicks. Landis challenges him to teach the scrubs all he wants for that night. Bullheaded Peskin brings Dot Skelton to the drug store, houses Bill around. Dot likes Bill. Drowsey Peters suggests Bill is overlooking a bet. Landis won't last, and if Bill is in solid with the skeletons...

CHAPTER IV

BILL MENTOR, in football togs, moved slowly toward the practice field. Deep in thought, he was for once in his life deaf to the seductive pangs of tea against leather.

Ten days had passed since Drowsey dropped the hint about Dot Skelton, but it clung to his mind like a burr on a piece of wool.

"Wait up, Bill!"

He started guiltily at the sound of Helen's voice. He felt somehow that even thinking of Dot made him disloyal to Helen. Besides, she had a darn queer habit of guessing what was on his mind.

Helen fell into step with him. "Am I poison, Bill?"

"Heck no, Helen," Bill said, a little gruffly. "I've been putting in overtime, so Old Man Peskin'll let me off for the dance."

"Oh, Bill, I'm so glad!" Helen's eyes glowed. "This will be the first time I've ever gone to dance with someone that I... well, kind of like."

"We'll have fun," Bill said, and changed the subject abruptly to football. "Well, we finally won a game Saturday."

"Westerburg!" Helen scoffed. "And just by a field goal. If that's the best we can do against a little, weak team, what'll happen when we meet Clayton?"

"Slaughter," Bill said gloomily. "I'll bet Landis is fit to be tied."

LANDIS was. They could hear his voice as he stomped along the sidelines, bellowing at the boys. Catching sight of Bill, he scowled.

"Well, Mentor, still teaching the scrubs to be All-Americans?"

"No, sir, but we've got some new plays ready to roll. You said you'd like a chance to have the varsity stop them."

Bill spoke quietly, without challenge, but his words sent a rush of crimson to Landis' face. For the first time he appeared to realize that his taunt had been taken seriously, and that now it was his turn to back out.

"I meant what I said, Mentor," he snapped. "Then, turning to the varsity squad: 'Get in there and smear this play wide open!'"

In the huddle Bill said earnestly:

Landis Orders Bill To Quit Football; Buck Gets an Offer

"Let's make these good, fellows. We know the plays will work, but we've got to prove it to Coach. If we do, he may let the varsity use 'em. Let's go!"

The play was simple, yet employed a brand of deception suitable to young teams. The ball came to a big scrub back. Bill cut behind him, faked a grab at the ball. Then, running together, the two sliced off tackle. Good work by the other faking back had made it appear that the play was going in another direction. Only the defensive halfback stayed on the play. Bill rolled blocked him as he dived for the ball carrier. Landis blew his whistle sharply.

SILENCE hung over the field a minute. The varsity stood in a sheepish group. To a man, the scrubs tried to hide the triumph that lighted their faces.

Bill Mentor was surprised. Buck's training told him that the play shouldn't have clicked so easily. He sensed that it wasn't the fault of the varsity boys, but of their defensive training.

Coach Landis strode across the field toward Bill. The tiny network of veins on his nose flamed. "Mentor," he said, "you're too big for your britches."

"But, Coach," Bill protested, "you wanted me to show the scrubs—"

"I don't want them learning circus plays," he raged. "You're—"

He checked himself, as if realizing that his anger carried him too far. "So long as I'm coach, Mentor, I'll run the show. You're a disrupting influence. I've let you practice with the squad because I felt sorry for you. I'm through being soft. Don't let me catch you around this field again."

Bill dug his cleats into the ground, bit down an angry retort. Buck had told the fellows to behave like soldiers. Now it was his turn to take orders and not whine.

BILL changed clothes slowly. He wrapped Buck's uniform in a big bundle. Where his heart should have been, there was a sick, empty feeling. No more football ever. In another year he'd be through school and looking for a steady job. Bill Mentor realized sharply just how much these sandwiched-in practice sessions meant to him.

That night, Bill tried to get the bundle in without letting Buck see it, but the older man's keen eyes noted the shape of the package.

"That looks suspiciously like a football uniform, Bill. Anything wrong?"

Lying to Buck was out of the question. Bill said dully, "Landis booted me off the field today."

"Why?"

Bill told him. Buck nodded, thumbed his pipe, but he uttered no condemnation of Landis. He said simply, "That's tough, fellow."

"Maybe he was right," Bill said. "I guess I did want to show off your plays, Buck."

Buck Mentor smiled. "Keep punching, Bill. If things go as I've planned, you've got five years of football ahead."

"Five years! Say—"

"Here, take a look at this, fellow."

ON the table Bill saw a movie camera and projector. "Buck, for Pete's sake, where did you get that?"

Avoiding Bill's gaze, Buck said, "A friend of mine left it here."

"A present?" Bill gasped. "Not exactly. You've heard me mention Jim Kirk?"

"The fellow you said could drive a hole in a concrete wall?"

"That's Jim. He was my sidekick in college. Recently he heard about my accident and looked me up. He's a district sales manager for the company that makes these outfits."

"I still don't get it, Buck."

The older man fumbled with his pipe. "These machines are designed especially for coaches. Jim thinks my football background would make me a good bet to sell them."

"Nothing doing," Bill said. "You're not going to do anything like that. You know darn well what the doctor told you about being quiet. I'll keep things going until we can afford the operation."

Buck gripped his son's arm. "Sorry, Bill, but I've made up my mind. I'm going to make a living for us. My legs can wait. Don't think it's going to be easy. We'll be separated, and that's tough to take."

"Wait," Bill pleaded. "Something will turn up here. I know it will." Bill's mind flashed to an auburn-haired girl. "I've got a plan..."

Public Lecture Series of Dixon Forum Is to Bring Five Noted Speakers Here

Today there is news of a public lecture series which promises a wealth of entertainment and educational advancement to subscribers to the programs, arranged by the Dixon Forum. Five diversified speakers of national and international renown—including a radio pastor, two professors from the University of Illinois, an Irish poet and orator, and a traveler-lecturer-photographer—have been engaged for the series, which is to open later this month and continue through March. All of the programs will be presented at the Loveland Community House.

First to appear will be Prof. A. D. Huston of the University of Illinois, who is scheduled to speak on Monday evening, Nov. 25, on the subject, "Propaganda: How to Recognize It." Mr. Huston has had wide experience in public discussion, and his analysis of specific situations taken from the news gives him an insight into the techniques and methods now being used to influence American public opinion.

On Monday evening, Dec. 9, Maurice Leahy, internationally known poet and orator, will give lecture-poems his views of "England and Ireland in our Time." Until recently of Dublin, Ireland, Mr. Leahy is editor of "The Ireland-American Review," published in New York City. He has appeared on the lecture platform at Harvard, Columbia university, and the University of California, and has won widespread editorial acclaim for his "silver-tongued oratory."

The third speaker is to be Dr. Albert Howe Lybber, a well-known professor on the University of Illinois campus, who is an alert and informed observer of international trends. His subject is to be "An Analysis of Current Events." One critic has stated that Dr. Lybber "is as up-to-date" as the most recent news broadcast.

Dr. John Holland, beloved radio pastor, will come to the lecture platform on Feb. 17 to discuss "Children's Rights." Dr. Holland, pastor of the WLS radio station's Little Brown Church of the Air, understands the everyday problems of everyday people.

The concluding lecture is to be presented on March 12 by Sam Campbell, traveler, lecturer, and photographer, whose subject will

Jones-Gallisath Bridal Is Read at West Brooklyn

Miss Helen Gallisath, daughter of the John W. Gallisaths of West Brooklyn, and Richard Jones, only son of Mrs. Anna Jones of Mendota, were married at 8:30 a. m. Wednesday at St. Mary's Catholic church in West Brooklyn. The Rev. Father Guccione performed the double ring ceremony.

Chrysanthemums were used in decorating the altar. Baskets containing chrysanthemums were placed at either side.

The nuptial high mass was sung by the senior choir, with Mrs. Thais Gehant presiding at the organ. White satin ribbons marked the reserved pews.

Brocaded Velvet
The bride wore a princess gown of white brocaded velvet, designed with a high cowl neckline, and a full skirt extending into a six-foot train. Spanish lace trimmed the yoke, sleeves, and train.

Her veil of illusion net was tuxedo length, and was edged with Spanish lace. It was held to her coiffure with a tiara of seed pearls. The triple strand of pearls she wore was a gift from the bridegroom, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses, baby chrysanthemums, and maiden hair ferns. Mr. Gallisath gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Walter Weber, the bridegroom's only sister, was matron of honor. She was wearing woodbury rose taffeta brocaded in velvet, also fashioned on princess lines, with a wide sash, and a sweetheart neckline trimmed with tiny velvet bows. Her bouquet contained orchid and white pompons.

Identical Gowns
Mrs. Weber's gown was copied in peacock blue for the bridesmaids, Mrs. Peter Dinges, only sister of the bride, and Miss Lucille Auchstetter. All three attendants wore shoulder-length blusher veils to match their dresses, with silver tiaras and silver sandals. Their silver bracelets, set with jewels to match their gowns and the ribbons of their arm bouquets, were their gift from the bride. The bridesmaids carried yellow and white pompons.

Little Joanne Anderson, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. Her gold taffeta dress was trimmed with narrow brown velvet ribbon at the neckline, and in her hair was a large bow to match her frock. She carried a white basket of vari-colored pompons. Her gold bracelet and pendant chain were the bride's gift.

Donald Jones, cousin of the bridegroom, carried the rings on a white satin pillow trimmed with lace. He wore short velvet trousers with a white satin blouse.

John Gallisath, Jr., the bride's only brother, was best man. Ushers included Robert Doran and Lambert Jones, cousins of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Gallisath was attired in an Indian earth costume, accented by a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses. The bridegroom's mother

Republicans Gain Seats in Senate in Tuesday's Vote

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—A resurgent tide of middlewestern votes which ran counter to the national Democratic trend carried Republicans today toward a six year high point to 28 seats in the new senate.

That meant four more places than they now hold but was far below the Democratic total of 66.

Party voting which cut through the Roosevelt majorities in Ohio, Illinois and Minnesota and paced the Willkie str., th in Nebraska and Indiana, gave the Republicans five seats previously held by Democrats. The only offset to this was the Republicans' loss of a seat in Delaware.

In the lone race still in doubt out of Tuesday's 35 contests, former Governor William Langer of North Dakota appeared almost sure to win for the Republicans the seat of Senator Lynn J. Frazier, whom he defeated in the primary. With only 126 of the state's 2,262 boxes yet untabulated, Langer had 93,264 votes to 58,477 chalked up by William Lemke, an independent.

When Vice President Garner—or a substitute—pounds the gavel at the first meeting of the 77th congress January 3, there will be more members on the Republican side of the aisle than at any time since the 73rd congress, in which 36 served, quit on June 18, 1934.

Hardest Licking Given Democrats in Illinois Poll

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Sharply reversing the Republican trend two years ago, late returns showed today that the Democrats would control the house, with an advantage of about 100 seats.

A tabulation of Tuesday's election, which adds two more years to the party's 10 consecutive years of house rule, showed this lineup: 263 Democrats, 162 Republicans, 3 Progressives, 1 independent Democrat, 1 American Labor, 5 in doubt.

The present composition of the house is: 258 Democrats, 167 Republicans, 2 Progressives, 1 Farmer-Labor, 1 American Labor, 6 vacancies. Three of the vacancies formerly were held by Democrats and three by Republicans.

The Republican side was swelled to its present figure by a gain of 81 in 1938, the year which marked a reversal of an earlier New Deal trend toward heavier Democratic majorities.

Democrats, including Chairman Andrew Jackson May of the military committee, were ahead in four of the districts still in dispute. Richard T. Buckler, the chamber's lone Farmer-Laborite, was a nose in front of his Republican adversary in Minnesota.

It seemed probable, therefore, that the Democrats would end up with upwards of 100 seats more than the Republicans.

12 Years of Control
The election assures the Democrats of control of the chamber for their longest period since the Civil war—12 years.

Along with victory the Democrats brought back to the house 10 party members who were ousted two years ago by Republicans. They included George D. O'Brien of Michigan.

Another former member returning was Miss Jeannette Rankin, Republican of Montana, first woman ever elected to congress.

Harry Sauthoff, Wisconsin Progressive, also comes back again, having turned the tables on Charles Hawks, Jr., Republican, 1/2 dn. 61a01 shrd cmfw vbg

Among the oddities of the election was the defeat of the Democratic candidates-at-large—those running from the entire state—in Illinois despite the victory of President Roosevelt.

The Democrats took their Gerald P. Nye, held a substantial lead in a three-cornered race Tuesday.

Willis, Brooks, Butler and Burton furnished four Republican upsets by winning Democratic seats. Senator Henrik Shipstead of Minnesota, accounted for the fifth change by shifting his party designation from Farmer-Labor to Republican and winning reelection.

soundest licking in Illinois, where in addition to the two-at-large places the party lost four districts. Among the defeated were the veterans James McAndrews and Claude V. Parsons.

Republicans who lost out included John C. Schafer of Wisconsin, known to thousands of gallery visitors for his booming voice and rapid fire oratory.

South Americans Set to Work for Common Program

(By The Associated Press)

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Nov. 7.—South America set to work today on a widespread program of inter-American cooperation which many sources believed would result in a strong common front linking the Americas defensively and economically.

With the possible exception of Brazil, the South American nations have been "marking time" on vital Pan American problems of economics and defense pending the presidential election in the United States but they regarded President Roosevelt's reelection as a "go ahead" signal.

Hesitation to make any commitments earlier was particularly noticeable in Argentina, a key nation in whatever cooperation scheme may be worked out to offset economic hardships resulting from war the threat of a totalitarian spread to the new world.

Seek Major Credits

This country is known to be facing a severe shortage of foreign exchange and is anxious to obtain major credits from the United States.

Finance Minister Frederico Penedo announced yesterday approval to his plan to restrict imports from the United States to vitaly needed articles so as to check gold export.

Argentina, the leading South American nation in credit rating because she never has defaulted on a national obligation, might seek a loan of as much as $100,000,000 from the U. S.

A similar situation exists in Chile, Uruguay, Paraguay and other South American nations.

South and Central America and Mexico generally received news of Roosevelt's reelection with the view that it gave a sturdy endorsement to the "good neighbor" policy.

Roosevelt, Hull Recheck Foreign Diplomatic Status

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Presaging action to reinforce American foreign policies, President Roosevelt and Secretary Hull today began rechecking the nation's diplomatic representation in European capitals.

As a result of the war and the consequently altered relationships with belligerent nations, there has been a considerable "turnover" among American ambassadors and ministers in Europe, necessitating a reshuffling soon and probably several changes in important posts.

Joseph P. Kennedy, ambassador to Great Britain, whose return to the United States produced reports he intended to resign, conferred with Hull yesterday but declined to discuss the future except to tell newspapermen he had "no plans."

The United States is now represented at the capitals of the four major western European nations by charge d'affaires instead of the usual ambassadors.

Herschel V. Johnson, a career diplomat, is in charge of the London embassy during Kennedy's absence.

Leland E. Morris, another foreign service career man, is charge d'affaires in Berlin.

Diplomatic observers here also do not expect William C. Bullitt, ambassador to France, to return to Vichy. H. Freeman Matthews, secretary of the embassy, is acting as charge d'affaires.

More than 2,000,000 patents have been granted to American and foreign inventors during the last 100 years.

"GIVE ME A DOMESTICATED MELEAGRIS GALLOPAVO"

That fancy Latin title is merely the scientific name for turkey—indispensable main ingredient for delicious turkey dinners! Imagine having to ask your butcher for "domesticated meleagris gallopavo"! At that, it would probably have made little difference, a few years ago, since prices were so high you could afford to ask for this treat only at Thanksgiving and Christmas, anyway.

Today you ask for "turkey." And order it all year 'round—at prices that are about half of what they used to be. Here's how it came about:

Up to 12 years ago, there was only one main route for turkey to go to market—a complicated, costly way. The farmer who raised turkey sold it to the country packer, the packer sold it to the commission man who sold it to the jobber, and the jobber sold it to the retail store. Each "middleman" had to take a high profit, for when the season was over—no more turkey! Naturally, the retail price was high!

But then something happened. When A&P began selling meats, there were more turkeys than people could afford to eat during the holidays, resulting in an oversupply when the holidays were over. So A&P bought turkeys out of season! Bought them in quantities and applied A&P's streamlined distribution methods which eliminate unnecessary in-between costs and profits.

At Eastertime 1928, in Newark, New Jersey, A&P broke all precedent by selling turkeys for a very low price out of season—and housewives flocked to buy them! What was the result? Well, A&P kept on "talking turkey" throughout the country all the year 'round. Now farmers grow 32,000,000 birds a year, and have a more stable, more profitable business. Today you can walk into A&P Super Markets, pick out a healthy young bird whose tender, tasty flesh is in the bloom of youth, and pay a price that let's you feast on turkey right around the calendar!

This is just one example of how A&P has developed ways to eliminate unnecessary expense in the marketing of food—to the end that its stores can provide more and better food for more people for less money!

A&P Super Markets are the latest, most efficient and economical food stores ever invented. They sell such a variety and quantity of food under one big roof, at one low storekeeping expense, that selling costs come down to a new all-time low. Buy all your foods at an A&P Super Market and you will get the greatest advantage of its low prices! You'll save on your entire food bill. * And you'll find it's fun to go A&P Super Marketing!

*You gain nothing from "special bargains" when you are charged higher prices for other things to make up for them. At A&P Super Markets you get a low average price on all foods offered. Thus you keep your complete food bill low.

CHILLY DAY DISHES

Potato Pancakes

3 eggs
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
3 cups milk
2½ cups sifted flour
1 tablespoon shortening
3 cups grated raw potatoes

Separate the eggs. Beat the yolks well and add salt, sugar and milk. Gradually add flour and melted shortening, beating well. Stir in grated potatoes. Lastly fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake at once on a hot griddle, which has been rubbed well with shortening.

If onion flavor is liked, drop finely chopped onions on top of batter on griddle. Serve piping hot with meat, or as a main lunch-dish. Yields about 2 dozen large pancakes.

Milkless Potato Pancakes

2 cups grated raw potato
2 eggs
1 teaspoon onion juice
1½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

The grated potato must be drained thoroughly, since potatoes contain so much water after grating. Place grated potato in a sieve, letting it drip until pulp is almost dry. (Otherwise flour must be added to batter.)

Add well-beaten eggs and remaining ingredients and mix well. Drop by tablespoons on hot griddle, which must be well-greased, since there is no shortening in batter. Cook over low heat until brown on one side, turn and brown on the other. Yields 12 pancakes.

Five-Minute Cabbage

2 cups milk
1½ quarts shredded cabbage
1 cup cream or rich milk
3 tablespoons melted butter
Salt and pepper

Heat the milk and cook the shredded cabbage in it for 2 minutes. Add the cup of cream or rich milk, the blended flour and butter and the seasonings. Cook rapidly 3 to 4 minutes, stirring constantly.

Prepared in this method, the cabbage retains its crispness and is delicate in flavor and color.

All-Brwn Honey Orange Bread

2 tablespoons shortening
1 cup honey
1 egg
1½ tablespoons grated orange rind
2½ cups sifted flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt

¼ cup orange juice
1 cup all-brwn
Blend shortening and honey. Add egg and orange rind and beat well. Sift flour with baking powder, soda and salt and add to first mixture alternately with orange juice. Add all-brwn. Pour into greased loaf pan and bake 1 hour and 10 minutes in moderate oven 325 degrees F. Yield: 1 loaf, using 5 x 9½ inch pan.

PUMPKIN — APPLE TIME

Colonial Pumpkin Pie

1½ cups canned or cooked pumpkin
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
3 eggs, slightly beaten
1 teaspoon ginger
¼ teaspoon allspice
2 tablespoons molasses
1 cup evaporated milk
Combine pumpkin, brown sugar, salt, spices, and molasses and mix well. Add eggs and milk. Pour mixture into unbaked pie shell. Bake in hot oven 425 degrees F. 40 to 45 minutes, or until a knife inserted comes out clean. Serve slightly warm or cold with wedges of sharp cheese. Molasses can be omitted, if desired.

Apple Crisp

8 medium apples
½ cup water
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¾ cup granulated sugar
½ cup sifted flour
6 tablespoons butter

Pare, and core and dice apples. Fill buttered individual baking dishes, or 1½ quart casserole with apples, water and cinnamon. Blend the rest of the ingredients until crumbly in consistency. Spread this mixture over the top of the apples and bake uncovered in a moderate oven 350 degrees F. until apples are tender. Serves six.

Serve apples as salad, sauce, jelly or dessert. Acid apples aid digestion of meats.

Washington — (AP) — Representative Ralph E. Church (R-Ill.) announced that the navy would acquire the Curtiss-Wright field at Glenview, Chicago suburb, for reserve training.

Soviet Union Is Called on to Improve Its Defense

Moscow, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Defense Commissar Semeon Timoshenko urged the Red Army to display "maximum vigilance in an exceptionally alarming international situation" as Moscow turned over its Red Square today to the army for a review marking the 23rd anniversary of the bolshevik revolution.

Marshal Timoshenko took advantage of the anniversary to show publicly for the first time how soviet Russia has built up her armed forces under his six-month regime at a time when other large European nations have been at war.

The Moscow soviet at a meeting last night issued a statement declaring Russia's policy to be continued neutrality and armed vigilance.

"True to her policy of peace and neutrality," the statement said, "the U. S. R. E. will not participate in war. We must remember the international situation is full of surprises. Therefore, as (Joseph) Stalin has said, we must keep the entire nation in a state of military preparedness."

President Michael Kalinin in a lengthy address at the meeting warned that "the present international situation does not allow us to remain impartial onlookers x x x."

Demands Stronger Army

Timoshenko, who succeeded Marshal Klementi Voroshiloff six months ago as defense commissar, called attention in an order of the day to the need for preparedness in "the face of the danger of military attack so that no 'accident' and no tricks of our foreign enemies could catch us unawares."

The order also urged further consolidation of Russia's economic and defensive might and demanded a stronger Red army and navy.

Listing bloodless conquests in Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, and Rumania's Bessarabia and northern Bucovina, 45-year-old Timoshenko declared Stalin's "policy of peace had resulted in remarkable new victories."

Moscow's residents were anxious to get a glimpse of the revamped Red army. Reforms instituted by Timoshenko included stricter discipline, snappier marching and intensified training.

Since last year's celebration the original 11 soviet republics have been augmented by five more from territory gained from Finland and Rumania and Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia.

(Sources in Istanbul, Turkey, reported last night that soviet Russia is withdrawing some of her troops from the Turkish-soviet caucasian frontier as a gesture of friendship.

Stelle Gets Rid of More Officers of Horner Regime

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 7—(AP)—Gov. John Stelle today replaced five high state government officials including Adjutant General Lawrence V. Regan of the National Guard and Ernest Palmer, director of insurance.

In other swift moves in a drastic post-election shakeup, the governor installed new appointees replacing Charles K. Schwartz as chairman of the state tax commission and W. W. Hart as acting chairman of the commerce commission, and named a new assistant conservation director to replace Anton J. Tomasek.

Leo M. Boyle of Chicago, adjutant general of the 33d division, was appointed to succeed General Regan as adjutant general of Illinois. An announcement from the governor's office said Regan submitted his resignation to return to private business.

C. Hayden Davis, 53, operator of hotels in Springfield, Quincy and Miami, Fla., was appointed by Stelle to succeed Palmer as insurance director. Palmer, an appointee of the late Governor Horner, submitted his resignation several weeks ago following Horner's death, but it previously had not been acted upon by the chief executive.

The removal of Palmer brought to four the number of state department directors removed by Stelle since he took office a month ago. Others replaced were Directors S. L. Nudelman of finance; A. L. Bowen of public welfare and Dr. A. C. Baxter of the public health department.

Other Appointments
Stelle announced that Charles K. Schwartz, close advisor of the late Governor Horner and chairman of the state tax commission, had resigned. Rama Sweet, property tax supervisor of the tax commission, was appointed chairman.

Stelle's replacement of Schwartz came after he had announced the appointment of Roy D. Keen, Chicago attorney and former commander of the 33rd division, Illinois National Guard, to the commerce commission chairmanship.

E. R. Ratcliffe of Beardstown was appointed assistant director

Resigns as Protest to Change in Regulations Concerning Sales Tax

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 7—(AP)—Samuel Herman, rules and regulations supervisor of the state finance department, resigned today in protest over revision of a sales tax regulation which he said would result in "the unwarranted and completely unjustified return" of $700,000 in sales taxes paid by contractors.

Herman said the revision of the regulation was "flagrant discrimination in favor of selected groups of taxpayers and in complete violation of all canons of propriety in the administration of tax measures."

In his letter to Finance Director A. M. Carter, recently appointed to the post by Governor John Stelle to succeed S. L. Nudelman, Herman said rule 6 of the sales tax act had been revised to provide "that neither persons who sell materials to contractors, nor contractors who use such materials in construction incur tax liability."

Herman declared that revision of rule six "will seriously impair state revenues by enabling selected groups of taxpayers to escape the payment of an estimated annual eight to 10 million dollars of tax."

Charles O'Brien of Peoria was appointed a member of the board of review in the state department of labor to represent employers. He succeeds former State Senator Robert M. Harper of East Moline whose resignation was announced.

of the conservation department to succeed Anton J. Tomasek, whose resignation became effective last night.

Charles O'Brien of Peoria was appointed a member of the board of review in the state department of labor to represent employers. He succeeds former State Senator Robert M. Harper of East Moline whose resignation was announced.

"FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS"

Tomorrow night's football game, the last of the season, will also be the last high school contest in the careers of at least 15 senior members of Coach Lindell's squad. Those playing in their final game here are: Jack Vaughn, Clell Weidman, Bob Travis, S. Padilla, Jim Catter, Jack Ferger, Ardell Bugg, Warren Walder, Bob Sanborn, Harry Quick, Fred Sanford, Don Vaile, Clarence Kelly, Bill Shultz, Garth Good and Richard Boehme.

THISSA AND THATTA

Several of the keglers in last night's games of the Classic League staged "repeaters" in series. Forrest Shawger rolled 176 in his second and third game; Krug liked the number 144 and rolled that in his second and third games; Diesness took a liking to 177 and rolled that total in his first and second games; Hahn took a fancy to 172 and counted that score in his second and third games; Hilliker was taken in with 141 and rolled that twice. Jay's Tavern won the first game with Welty's Pontiacs on a margin of four pins and Plovman won their second game with only eight pins to spare.

FOR PINOCHE FANS—

Fred Page, whose son, Earl, is playing right end on the Alumni football team, relates the following for the benefit of double deck pinocle fans: Going into the last hand Fred and his partner were slightly over 900 points in the lead when one of his opponents came up with a double run in trumps, 300 pinocle and a round house. In all counting 2040 points, which should have put the game on ice. But Fred's partner happened to hold 1,000 points and with the count they were able to take, nosed out their opponents by 60 points, (3850 to 3790, for four hands). Fred forgot to mention who dealt or what his opponents said.

WE BEEN THINKING THAT MAYBE...

We are wondering who (with the exception of a few alumni players) would protest too much if the Alumni-High school game were to be cut out next year and room made on the schedule for another opponent; say, Rockford West. Few high schools in this vicinity continue the alumni games. Of course, it's just a suggestion, but looking at it from several points of view, it seems like a pretty good one to us. No official action has been taken to eliminate the game, so if you are an ardent grad gridman, don't become too excited yet.

HOOSIER HOT SHOT

The performance of Dick Good, sophomore from South Bend, Ind., in last week's Wisconsin-Illinois game, rates as the best at left half-back for Illinois this year. Good completed five successive passes, ran the ball to the Badger one-foot line to set up the Illinois touchdown, and was outstanding on running back punts. On one occasion he took a punt and charged through three Wisconsin tacklers who were right on top of him, picking up about 15 yards.

SINTH GUEST PICKER

Marvin Winger, coach of the Dixon high school freshman-sophomore football team which finished the season in a tie for the championship with Belvidere, will be tomorrow's guest football picker. "Dutch," as sixth of the season, will be aiming to better a .789 percentage which Earl James and Jim Dominetta each have scored to lead the list. In the past three years the highest mark scored was the .800 percentage set by Robert Dean of Ashton and Willard Jones of the White Sox gallery.

DATA ON DUCK HUNTING

THIS SEASON

By Harold Hollis

Before going into the duck situation this fall, I want to make one appeal which I am certain all good sportsmen will observe. The appeal is to desist from shooting at ducks long before they come into a reasonable range. I think that the complaint most often voiced by veteran duck hunters is that there are all too many hunters who blaze away long before there is a chance to bring down any of a flying flock.

If hunters will be reasonable and only shoot when they have a chance of getting the ducks there will be better hunting for all and many fewer of these cripples which get away only to die and do no one any good. Any hunter who has been at the game at all ought to know when birds are within range and should hold his fire until this time comes.

Now for the conditions as reported to us from various parts of the country where the hunters have been trying their luck. The flights were very slow in starting this year because of mild weather and little action was had by hunters along any but the regular, populated routes of down the big river valleys of the Mississippi and along the eastern seaboard.

Those who have had to try to get in some shooting in the states not touched by the major flights have been almost completely out of luck until recent days. A front did come up out of the north west the middle of last month which started the ducks moving to the south but it was not a severe touch of cold and didn't help matters greatly. The duck hunters who were out the first days were mostly empty handed when their seasons were over.

There are more ducks and Canadian hunters have had the best of it this season to date. An improvement of an encouraging nature is certain for the last days of the shooting season. If you can travel any distance, do get into the territory of the major flights though, or you are going to be disappointed in spite of the fine reports we have been getting all year as to the duck increase.

Because of weather conditions favorable to breeding in Canada there were not nearly as many local ducks bred this season as last year and that has worked a hardship on the middle western hunters. Mexican ducks have increased for some reason this year and the hunters over the border have been enjoying good shooting below Arizona for some time.

"LOCAL BOY MAKES GOOD"

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—One of the capital's business houses took a full newspaper page to say welcome home today to President Roosevelt.

The page's headline reported the outcome of Tuesday's memorable election with great economy of words. It proclaimed: "Local Boy Makes Good."

ARMISTICE DAY SPEECH

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The White House said today President Roosevelt would deliver an Armistice Day broadcast to the nation at 10 a. m. (Central Standard time) Monday.

The address, from Arlington National cemetery, will be under the auspices of the American Legion.

OKLAHOMAN A. & M. GRIDMAN LEADS GROUND GAINERS

Tom Harmon, Idle Last Week, Ranks Second In the Nation

By GAIL FOWLER

Seattle, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Sophomore Jimmy Reynolds of Oklahoma A. & M., is right back where he was four weeks ago—in first place among the nation's gridiron ground gaining leaders.

Figures released by the American Football Statistical Bureau today show that Reynolds turned full speed ahead to rise again to first in total offense—gains rushing and passing. His season total to 852 yards made him the leading rookie back of the year.

Statistically, he displayed Michigan's Tom Harmon, leader the previous two weeks, both in total offense and as a "workhorse." Harmon was idle last Saturday but still ranks second with 833 yards.

Reynolds, tenth among the rushers, has packed the ball 147 times and thrown 56 passes for 203 total yards, comparing with the 1939 high at this point of 177 total offensive plays by Ernie Linn of Rice.

Creighton Player Is Third

Johnny Knolla of Creighton, whose team lost to the Oklahoma Aggies, 20-14 last week, ranks third at 832—just a yard behind Harmon.

For the first time, one of the Cornell class backs moves up among the elite when Hal McCulloch jumped from 12th to fourth, with 805 yards.

McCulloch also has the highest pass completion average—705.

Rushing leader of the week is Al Heschgler of Detroit who has carried the ball 87 times for 617 yards. Dave Allerdice of Princeton still leads the passers with 51 completions. Owen Price of Texas Mines again heads the punters with a 48.15 yard average 26 punts. Jack Jennings of Oklahoma retains pass-snatching honors with 19 for 252 yards.

In pass offense Hal Hursh, Indiana, is fifth with 37 completions out of 81 attempts.

FOOTBALL DEATHS ARE ON DECLINE

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 7.—(AP)

A gridiron vital statistics expert reported today that deaths from football were on the decline for the fourth year in a row.

Dr. Floyd R. Eastwood, record keeper for the American Football Coaches' and National Collegiate Athletic associations, said that only eight deaths could be blamed on the game for the first half of this season.

The figure has shown a downward trend since 1937, said Eastwood, an associate professor of men's physical education at Purdue university.

Five of the 1940 fatalities were ascribed directly to football and three—two from heart trouble and one from an infection—indirectly.

Directly attributed deaths numbered two less than for the same part of 1939. The decline was in the high school classification, where two deaths occurred against four last year.

Only one fatality blamed directly on football was in college competition—that of Jack Tandy, 21, of San Francisco state college, who died Oct. 27 of cerebral hemorrhage.

Result of Touch Football

Another death occurred in an athletic club game of touch football—ordinarily regarded as less hazardous than the regulation game.

The victim, John H. Donaldson, 20, of Amherst, Mass., died Oct. 1 of skull fracture suffered in collision with another player.

The fifth fatality of this kind was that of 14-year-old Kenneth Vinton of Seattle, Wash., Sept. 16 from an appendix ruptured by a kick in a sandlot game.

Other deaths:

Directly attributed—Edmund Ahubowicz, 17, Dickinson City (Pa.) high school, Sept. 28, spinal injury; James Cholas, 18, Grand Junction, (Colo.) high school, Sept. 30, cerebral hemorrhage.

Indirectly attributed—Douglas M. Parsons, 21, Wheaton (Ill.) college, Sept. 21, heart trouble; Merle Bailey, 14, Mount Airy (Ia.) high school, Oct. 18, heart trouble; Carl Strong, 15, Winter Park (Fla.) high school, Oct. 12, infection.

TIGERS LICK WOUNDS

Columbia, Ind. The University of Missouri football team has been beset by injuries all season. Eight men were unable to play in the Nebraska game, and the Tigers were without the services of three of their regulars in the New York U. battle.

GO SOUTH, YOUNG MAN

Columbia, S. C.—Seven boys from Erie, Pa., are on the South Carolina squad this year, and five others are stringers hall from Pennsylvania.

ELECTRICAL CONSUMPTION

Twenty per cent of the entire domestic service electric load of the United States, or a total of 4,632,000,000 kilowatt hours of energy, were used by 13,775,000 electric refrigerators in 1939.

Worley Rolls 632 Series as Williams Five Maintains in Classic Bowling League

Three Teams Tied for Second Place After Games at Dixon Recreation Alleys Last Evening

Williams DeSoto bowling quintet which is leading the parade in the Classic League, blew a tire last night, but limped across the finish line to be first for another week.

The "motor five" lost two games to the Coca Cola quintet which enjoyed a large handicap advantage of 405 pins in the match. Oehl led the winners with a 509 series and Ed Worley counted the evening's highest total with 209-210-213 for 632.

After last night's games, three clubs (Welty's Pontiacs, Knacks and Schlitz) were knotted around second place, only two games behind the leaders.

Welty's Pontiacs won two games from Jay's Tavern with Diesness rolling 524 for the winners and Beane counting 488 for the losers.

Schlitz Beer team won three games from Beier's Bread with Miller spilling the pins for a 492 series. McCordle's 500 count led the doughboys.

Knacks won two games from Potter's Cleaners with Dwyer's 561 topping the winners and Dockery leading the cleaners with 513.

Plovman's won three games from the Dixon Machine Works as Plovman was high man for his mates with 494 and Weidman topped the losers with 509.

Sunkist Pies won two games from the United Cigar quintet. The pie men were led by Legore with a 494 count and Bremer's 512 was high for the smokers.

Keeley's Beer won two games from the Hi-Way Grill as Capion rolled up a 552 series for the winners and F. Smith paced the Grill team with 548.

I. N. U. sparked to a two-game victory over the Wilbur Lumber company with Schertner rolling a 484 to top the utilities and Wilbur pacing his club with a 534 series.

Don Miller Goes East With Badger Grid Squad Today

The University of Wisconsin football squad, determined to make their first invasion of New York City a success, went through an intensive scrimmage session against the freshmen Tuesday for their last contact work of the week. (The team left today to face the Columbia foe.)

The Badgers looked impressive against the yearlings. When on offense a backfield composed of Tom Farris at quarterback, John Tennant at left half, Jim McFadden at right half, and Don Miller at fullback ran through the first year men with ease even though the opposition put up by the frosh was unusually formidable.

Miller will probably remain with the fullback corps until it is determined whether George Paskvan and Bob Ray will be able to play against Columbia. Both have improved greatly and should be able to go. Len Calligaro also looked good in the scrimmage session. With Paskvan and Ray in shape, the fullback spot will be a big source of worry to the Columbia eleven all afternoon.

Hardest Drive

John Tennant showed his hardest drive of the season. The Fenimore lad has found himself in the past two games and has won the left half job from the sophomores who were ahead of him earlier in the season. Tennant will also see action at quarterback, as he has done in every game this fall.

Ray Kreick continues to improve in the center spot. He is rapidly learning the assignments of the job. While Bob McKay seems to have taken over the top job with the center corps, the converted end is likely to see action against Columbia. The pivot job has been the weak point in the Badger forward line all season, so Kreick's rapid improvement is welcome to Coach Harry Stuhldreher.

In addition to Ray and Paskvan, the entire list of Badgers on the injured list continues to improve and Stuhldreher expects that everyone will be ready to go on Baker Field Saturday.

Beaten Arizonan Proves Self One of Best of Losers

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Thousands of candidates for America's political offices were disillusioned, beaten men today, but the people can point to pride to one—Sen. Henry Fountain Ashurst.

It's money out of his own pocket, too.

The eloquent Arizonan, defeated in September for renomination by the Democratic party to the Senate in which he sat for 28 years, is distributing a handsome booklet in which he tells all about his fall.

It's entitled: "Farewell to the Senate."

Always one of the most gracious men on Capitol Hill, Ashurst goes in for no dripping sentimentality, bitterness or flippancy in his commemorative of defeat. Just the well chosen words and observations of a good loser.

Comforting Document
As solace for the defeated candidates and those who backed losers, it is a comforting document. And for the winners, it should make them a little meek in triumph.

"A great many people unwise-ly imagine," Ashurst comments philosophically, "that the beauty and serenity of life inhere in office. "No, royalty and honor do not necessarily inhere in cabinets, congresses and courts; royalty and honor inhere in the citizen."

He goes on: "If we are to remain a free people, it is the duty of the public servants not grumpily and sourly to accept the verdict of the majority, but joyously to accept that verdict. But, it would be hypocrisy and pretense for me to say that I do not regret leaving the Senate."

Keehn Made Chairman Commerce Commission

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 7.—(AP)—Roy D. Keehn of Chicago was named by Governor John Stelle last night as chairman of the Illinois Commerce Commission.

Keehn, who retired last spring as major general in command of the 33rd division, Illinois National Guard, is 62 years old. He is an attorney and was formerly publisher of the Chicago Herald & Examiner. He has been chairman of the State Armory Board since July, 1935.

The new chairman will replace William W. Hart, who has been acting chairman since the resignation of Dr. Paul J. Raver of Oak Park. Hart will continue as a member of the commission.

Raver, who left the commission chairmanship to accept a federal public works appointment last year, served only a few months. He was named acting chairman to succeed Chairman James M. Slatery when the latter was appointed by the late Governor Horner to fill the vacancy in the senate caused by the death of Senator James Hamilton Lewis.

NEVER FROZEN

Hot Sulphur Spring Creek, in Banff, Alberta, Canada, never has been frozen since its discovery in 1883, although it is a mile above sea level and nearby lakes freeze solidly.

The oldest era in geological history is the Archeozoic Era. Rocks dating back to that era yield no fossils.

Chile Lays Claim to Lands in Antarctica

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Chile hopes to assure herself of participation in any future development of Antarctica, informed sources said today in explanation of her official claim yesterday to all Antarctic territory between 53 and 90 degrees west longitude.

The Chilean ministry of foreign affairs in making the claim said "scientific investigations have established the existence in the Antarctic of enormous quantities of coal which, although of a poor grade, constitutes the greatest reserve in the world."

The ministry pointed out that explorers "declare it not unlikely that petroleum will be found there." No oil is found within Chile's boundaries.

Included in Chile's claim is Heardland, claimed for the United States by Lincoln Ellsworth on his flight over Antarctic regions in 1935.

TIRES OF PUBLIC LIFE

Mexico City, Nov. 7.—(AP)—General Eduardo Hay, Mexico's 63-year-old minister of foreign affairs, announced today his intention of retiring to private life when President Lazaro Cardenas's term expires Dec. 1. Hay has had a long public career dating back to the administration of President Carranza.

Mourning-cloak butterflies attack birds.

Capital Citizens Vote Against Daylight Time

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 7.—(AP)—Springfield citizens voted in Tuesday's election to repeal the ordinance which established daylight savings time here last summer for the first time since the World War. The vote was 24,364 to 16,079.
